ORGANIC IN TRENTINO

Trentino is a small province in Northern Italy, in the heart of the Dolomites, known worldwide for its high quality of life, unspoilt environment and wild nature, but also for its small and large innovative and sustainable enterprises and renowned research centres.

In this context, certified organic products undoubtedly represent a strategic sector for the competitive growth of the region, which is an international reference point in the fields of agriculture, food products and related technologies.

TRENTINO AT NATEXPO 2023

The “Trentino organic system” is participating for the first time in Natexpo Paris 2023 showcasing in a business catalogue a selected group of companies and hosting 3 of them at the fair. These enterprises are part of #OrganicTrentino, a service platform created by Trentino Sviluppo, the development agency of the Autonomous Province of Trento, with a clear goal: to build a community of local companies active in the organic sector and further develop the entire cluster.
